EXCITING HISTORY CLOSE TO HOME

A friend of ours, back from a distant trip through the U.S. and South America, had many interesting stories to tell. One of them is particularly interesting for those of us who live in St. Albert. While in California he met a family who asked him if he could tell them more about the St. Albert Museum about which they had heard a lot.

They had heard that it was one of the most interesting historical places in North America, where the development of the west could be seen first hand. He was ashamed that he couldn't tell them anything about the Father Lacombe Museum in St. Albert, so this week he visited the museum to find out all about it. So many of us in St. Albert don't know that yearly hundreds of tourists from all over Canada and the U.S. and even further, visit the Father Lacombe Museum. Not only this, but many of us haven't visited the museum ourselves. When you enter the old log chapel built by Father Lacombe in 1862, you get the feeling of stepping back into history. In

ST. ALBERT MISSION

An 'Historical Point of Interest' sign on Highway #2 opposite Veress' Service Station, tells us a bit about St. Albert history. To learn more, visit the Father Lacombe Museum of St. Albert.

All of this, so close to home and so close to our history. Don't fret if you can't afford to travel to the Okanagan, Vancouver or the U.S. Visit our local Father Lacombe Museum and you will have an interesting and exciting day.

PLANT FOR ST. ALBERT

A group of Edmonton businessmen have applied to the provincial government and are also negotiating with local authorities for the establishment of a two million dollar plaster board plant in St. Albert. The reason they wish to build their plant in St. Albert is that they want to be as close as possible to the Northern Alberta Railroad and also they are convinced that St. Albert is a good place for industrial development. One hundred people will be employed permanently in this plant, and during some months, as many as 200-350.

It will be 100% Canadian owned. It all depends now on the permission of the Provincial Government, and if this is granted, plans are already made to start building by the end of the year, and to start production if possible, by May 1964.

GUESS CONTEST

This week's Guess contest did bring a correct answer but it also brought a lot of 'Way out' answers too.

This week's 'Guess' contest did bring a correct answer but it also brought a great variety of wrong answers too. Here are just a few examples of the wrong 'Guesses': "shoe lace on running shoes", "two forks", "arm of a chair", "chains at the top of a swing", "two clothesline pulleys", "a knife and an egg turner hanging on a rack", "legs of a race horse", "a flower and a tree being watered with a water can" and "a knife and a fork". As you can see, most of them were way off the right track, which was "horses front legs going over jump". T. Skistod of 7 Sunnyside Cres. was the one who saw this, so therefore a cheque is on its way.

Watch for this week's Guess contest, it could be your turn to win $5.00.

ter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan B. Blair, of St. Albert, and Dr. Joseph Marcel Venne, son of Mrs. Edward Lorensen, and the late Athanase Venne, of Warwick, Alberta.

Jacques Bourgeois and Stanley Gillies, cousins of the bride, were altar boys. Baskets of flowers decorated the altar and Communion rail to which the bride was escorted by her father. She was radiant in a strikingly simple floor length gown of Morgansa, made with a fitted bodice, lily point sleeves and a scooped neckline trimmed with appliques of imported venetian lace. This same trim swirled down the front of the bouffant skirt and caught up the bustle effect in the back. Her seed pearl headpiece held in place the misty shoulder length veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of pink rapture roses and white heather.

Miss Betty Ann Gillies, of Edmonton and Miss Carol Gillies of Calgary, attended their cousin as bridesmaids. The former in petal pink and the latter in dulce blue, they wore identical gowns of silk organza over taffeta, made with deeply embroidered bodices. Their headpieces of ribbon bows toned with their gowns and they carried nosegays of whole and feathered white carnations.

Robert Gillies, cousin of the bride, and Edward Martyna, acted as best men. Ushering the guests were Daniel McRae and Edward Humaniuk, brother in law of the groom.

Father Richard Theroux of Chauvin, Father Austin McGuire, CSsR of Peterboro, Ont., Father Raymond Sevigny and Father J. H. Hamilton of Edmonton and Father M. McMahon of St. Albert attended in the Sanctuary. The wedding music was played by Sister St. Joseph, who also accompanied Cameron Ross, the soloist.

The bride's mother chose a jacket dress in wood-rose lace with accessories to match. Her corsage was a cymbidium orchid. Mrs. Lorensen, mother of the groom was attractive in a beige lace gown featuring a satin cummerbund. Her hat and accessories were in tone. A pink orchid completed her ensemble.

A dinner for 200 relatives and intimate friends was held in the St. Albert Community Hall. Piper James Olson, cousin of the bride, piped the wedding party to the head table which was adorned by a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by tapers and floral arrangements in pink and white feather carnations.

Mr. Vincent J. Maloney was master of ceremonies. Mr. F. Lawrence Akins proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom fittingly responded.

In the evening a dance and buffet supper was attended by over 400 guests.

For a honeymoon to Jasper and Banff, the bride changed to a two piece dress in apricot tones, with which she wore white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Upon their return, Dr. and Mrs. Venne will make their home in St. Albert. Out of province guests attended from Montreal, Que., Green Valley, Ont., Peterboro, Ont., New Westminster, B.C., Prince George, B.C., Fort St. John, B.C. and Miami Springs, Florida.

GAUTHIER MacMILLAN WEDDING

A colorful, but very solemn wedding ceremony was performed on Saturday, July 13, at the St. Albert Roman Catholic Church by Rev. Father Georges Chevrier, who united in marriage Colleen Ann MacMillan daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Collin MacMillan and Roger Lawrence Gauthier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albin Gauthier.

The altar boys were the bride's four cousins, Garry, Donnie, Stuart and Dale MacMillan. The organist, Sister St. Joseph and soloist Mr. A. Deschenes, rendered a very touching Ave Maria. The guests were ushered in by two cousins of the bride, Richard MacMillan and Lawrence Buehler. The signing of the register was witnessed by the two fathers, Mr. Collin MacMillan and Mr. Albin Gauthier. A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the bride's home for friends and relatives. The banquet was held at 5:30 p.m. in the St. Albert Community Hall, followed by a reception and dance, enjoyed by all attending. Mr. Paul Piquette, cousin of the bride, was master of ceremonies, and Father Chevrier proposed the toast to the bride.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white floral re-embroidered organza, with a keyhole neckline, long lily point sleeves, bouffant skirt caught into a bustle effect with perk bows. Her two-tiered scalloped chapel veil was accentuated by a pearl and crystal headpiece. She carried a bouquet of red velvet roses, with white ribbon and red buds cascading down her gown. Her jewellery was one strand pearl necklace, a gift of the groom. Besides the traditional blue garter, she carried her paternal great grandmother's handkerchief as something old. Her five bridesmaids wore identical gowns of nylon organza with bell skirts caught up with perk bows. Karen MacMillan, junior bridesmaid, wore a gown of hot pink, Doris MacMillan, maid of honor, chose mint green, Lorraine Buehler, pale pink, Leonie Gauthier, pale blue and Joyce Genored, pale yellow. The bridesmaids headpieces were identical crystal tiaras, and they carried bouquets of white carnations, mixed with buds and ribbons the same shade as their gowns. They wore their gift from the bride, a one strand necklace.

The groom was attended by his brothers, Messrs. Rolly and Allan Gauthier, his cousin Leonard Gauthier, Guy Piquette, the bride's cousin and Wayne MacMillan, the bride's brother.

The mother of the bride chose a flowered gown of nylon organza with maize and tangerine flowers on white background. Her large hat was maize and she wore white shoes and accessories, with a corsage of yellow carnations on tangerine bows. The groom's mother chose a two piece ensemble of pink nylon and lace top. Her hat and accessories were white and her corsage was pink carnations. The bride's two grandmothers, Mrs. Dellamien Chevigny, of Plamondon and Mrs. Isabelle MacMillan of St. Albert chose blue with pink corsages. The groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Gauthier of Plamondon, were unable to attend the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Gauthier left for a honeymoon trip to Banff and Jasper. When they return they will make their home at 7 Madonna Drive, St. Albert.

RECREATION

NEWS

I would like to congratulate and commend the Sturgeon Heights Recreation Committee for their very successful field day. Their intent was to show what can be done by a co-operative volunteer effort. It is their hope that other community neighbourhood recreation committees will seek to follow suit and organize activities for their communities. The above endeavor, as well as other recreational activities, can not be accomplished without VOLUNTEER support. You are urged to consult the Town Recreation Director if you have any suggestions or can assist in regard to the recreational program this summer.

An attempt is being made to involve all ages in some sort of activity during the week. A playschool-type program has been started at Vital Grandin, but this cannot go on a regular basis unless more volunteers step forward. This program consists of games, songs and recreational activities for girls and boys 5 to 7 years of age. There is also interest in Mission Park for a program of this type, but against this cannot be held regularly unless aided by volunteers. Volunteers should be at least 15 years of age. The Town Recreation Director will be at the following areas to organize and supervise activities for all ages:

|         | 10 a.m.          | 2 p.m.         |

ST. ALBERT TENNIS CLUB

With the tennis season in full swing, the St. Albert Tennis Club held a tournament for men's-ladies' and mixed doubles on Sunday, July 14th.

Under near perfect weather conditions, almost all the members participated. The competition was keen and everybody enjoyed themselves. Several new members, including students, who only recently attended a clinic given by the club, played very well. Although they did not win any prizes this time, with a little more practice they will soon give the 'older' players a rough time. The ladies doubles was won by Audrey Kenny and Angela Sonntag who defeated Pam Jackson and Margaret Styles by a score of 8-4. In the mixed doubles, Pam Jackson teamed up with Brian Renton and defeated Angela and Bert Sonntag 8-2.

The men's doubles final of Sam Hogg and Bob Hanson against Eric Jackson and Alf Kenny is to be played at a later date. The club is currently playing in the inter-club tournament for the Brover Shield and has to date played against Coronation Park, Hillcrest Country Club and Fort Saskatchewan, with varying results.

Club crests are now available and can be obtained from the executives.

Dear Editor,

What is wrong with so many of the people of Sturgeon Heights? Where is their community pride and spirit? I am referring to the disgraceful condition into which so many of the yards and boulevards have fallen. Parts of Sheridan Dr., Salina Dr., and Sunset Blvd. are in terrible condition and an eyesore in this community. Broken toys and rubbish are strewn over yards, boulevards and streets; weeds are allowed to grow unchecked and infest neighbouring yards, sidewalks go unswept, boulevards uncut, never raked. I realize that extensive landscaping can run into money, but it doesn't cost one red cent to bend over and pick up rubbish, paper, etc, or to sweep a sidewalk, or to pull weeds, or to rake and cut a boulevard. It is just sheer laziness and indifference that lets these conditions exist. So come on neighbours, let's get busy and make our section of St. Albert one to be proud of.

Sturgeon Homeowner.

Editor's Note:

We know that some residents use their gardens for a garbage dump or weed nursery, but this is a symptom common to all those who don't respect their neighbour. But we are convinced that the majority of our St. Albert residents are doing a wonderful job in landscaping their gardens and cleaning up their property. In connection with this, we would like to remind our citizens that the town has asked us to look after the boulevards. It is encouraging to see so many citizens doing this.

Yes, this picture was taken in July of 1963 on the main street of St. Albert, a town of more than 7,000 persons. A question asked by many of our citizens is when will the centre of St. Albert become a modernized shopping centre with lots of parking space? It all depends on St. Albert's industrial development which it needs to increase the local business.
